

Socrates Sculpture Park will send you an email containing a copy of this agreement, as well as how to find your material online, for your records & enjoyment!

Socrates Sculpture Park & Queens Public Library
Digital Archives Materials Donation Consent Form

I hereby consent to the use of my name and a digital facsimile of my material(s) by Socrates Sculpture Park. I understand that the materials that I have shared will be used in connection with the promotion and marketing of the Park's programs and services, and will not be used commercially by the Park in any way.

I understand that this material will be shared with Queens Public Library for preservation and non-commercial use according to the terms specified by the license Creative Commons Attribution—Non-Commercial—Share Alike 4.0 International.

This license requires that reusers (QPL, Socrates Sculpture Park) give credit to the creator (me). It allows reusers to distribute, remix, adapt, and build upon my material in any medium or format, for noncommercial purposes only. If others modify or adapt my material, they must license the modified material under identical terms. If a reuser of this content outside of Socrates and/or QPL wishes to license my work for commercial purposes, Socrates and/or QPL will contact me and I will set those terms. More information about this license can be found at: <https://creativecommons.org>.

I further understand and agree that Socrates Sculpture Park and the Library are not responsible for external derivative content using my shared materials, and that this release is binding.
